CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I.

The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise as to the biddings the lot in dispute to be put up again. No bidding to be retracted.

II.

The full purchase-money for each lot shall be paid at the fall of the hammer (if required) ; each and every lot shall, immediately at the fall of the hammer, be considered as delivered, and be and remain in every respect at the absolute risk of the respective purchaser or purchasers thereof, and shall be removed from the place of sale at the purchaser's expense, and taken with all faults and errors of description.

III.

No lot or lots shall be removed from the premises on which the sale is held until paid for, and no lot to be removed during the progress of sale.

IV.

The amount of the biddings will be regulated by the auctioneer, who reserves the right of refusing the bid of any person, of altering the arrangements of the lots, of withdrawing any lots, and of amending or adding to these conditions at time of sale.

V.

If any purchaser shall fail to comply with the above conditions, or an of them, the auctioneer shall be at liberty either to recover in full the amount of the lot or lots bought by such purchaser, without reference to any delivery of the lot or lots, other than the first delivery by the fall of the hammer ; or to re-sell any lot or lots bought by such purchaser, either by public or private sale ; and the full amount of the purchase-money at the present sale, or the deficiency (if any) arising from such second sale, shall be made good by the defaulter at the present sale, and be recoverable as and for liquidated damages.

VI.

To prevent inaccuracy in the delivery and extra trouble in collecting, no lot to be removed during the time of sale except by a Special Delivery Order, and all accounts must be settled on the premises during or at the close of the sale.
